'Mandarin to launch Wimax services in Sicily by end-September'

(DMEurope Via Acquire Media NewsEdge) Around one million Sicilians, equal to around one-fifth of residents on the island, will be able to receive Wimax services by the end of September, from Catania-based operator Mandarin. The company will provide wireless broadband in Caltanissetta, Catania, Messina, Ragusa and Siracusa, as well as in many rural or isolated areas. The offers include Smartmax and Speedmax, for residential clients. The first offers up to 7 Mbps at EUR 20, plus EUR 5 for the lease of the router. The Speedmax offer provides higher upload (512 Kbps) at a cost of EUR 30 per month. Customers signing up before 31 October will receive free installation of the Mandarin Station (Wimax router).
